

Dear sirs,

As Sinclair uses our public airwaves free of charge, are they not obligated by law to serve the public interest?

Sinclair's plan to air "Stolen Honor" is the last straw in a string of abuses on our public airwaves. Your agency needs to restructure its licensing process, and reign in those megalomaniacs who use them for their own purposes to misguide the American People.

Sincerely,